

CANADIAN MINING AND METALLURGICAL FOUNDATION

To maintain its leadership in the mining world, Canada needs the best educated workforce possible to develop new technologies and apply them in the most effective manner.

CANADIAN MINING AND METALLURGICAL FOUNDATION (CMMF)

The Canadian Mining and Metallurgical Foundation (CMMF), founded in 1972, is a non-profit charitable organization dedicated to promoting and supporting education in the many facets of the mining world. Through a variety of activities and programs, the Foundation's goal is to promote mining as an excellent career option to students from primary school to university. Although a separate legal entity from the Canadian Institute of Mining, Metallurgy and Petroleum (CIM), CMMF was established and continues to be funded by the generous contributions of CIM members.

CMMF PROGRAMS AND INITIATIVES

During 2011, CMMF continued to support scholarships designed to attract and assist students enrolled in university and technical school mining programs. CMMF also supported the CIM Distinguished Lecturers Program and Mining for Society (M4S), a CIM initiative that helps build awareness of the industry's importance in our daily lives. CMMF also supported educational programs in public schools through the PDAC's Mining Matters and the Mineral Resources Education Program of BC (MRBC). At the college and university levels, CMMF promoted relationships between student chapters and CIM branches to provide students with an opportunity to network with industry leaders in order to explore career paths in the mining industry.

NEW IN 2011

In 2011, CMMF launched its first Annual Report to keep donors informed about how their contributions are being used. CMMF also included its donor list for the 2010 Giving Campaign and reprinted it in the year end Outlook issue of CIM Magazine.

CMMF also signed an historic funding agreement between student chapters, CIM branches, CIM, and CMMF. This agreement will allow student branches to access funding through CMMF. The Saskatoon student chapter was the first to sign this agreement, which will help build stronger ties between the chapter and the CIM branch. The initiative will also provide the chapter with matching funds for educational projects and an annual Chapter McIntosh Prize. The agreement is in place for a period of up to 10 years.

In the spring of 2011, CMMF launched its new website (www.cmmf72.org). The website showcases the organization's programs, activities, scholarships and giving opportunities. Furthermore, the website has facilitated making gifts to CMMF. Donors can now download the forms required for making special contributions such as gifts of securities. Also included is legal terminology that can be used in preparing last wills and testaments.

CMMF has actively participated in CIM and MetSoc conferences, holding special fundraising events, such as scotch tastings. CMMF also hosts information kiosks at the CIM conferences to provide members with direct access to CMMF in order to learn more about the Foundation and its mandate.

CMMF SCHOLARSHIPS AWARDED IN 2011
